Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes Dr. T. Sanders of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail.
At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery.
The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years.
This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy."

Mrs. F. W. Moye of Readville, Mass., formerly Miss Emily Stevens of Island Fond and well known in that section of the state, was perhaps fatally burned last week while lighting a gas stove. As she bent over, her shawl caught fire from a gas jet, terribly burning the upper part of her body and arms. Her condition is critical.

$100—REWARD—$100.

Readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that has been able to cure in all its stages and that the cure is not a matter of time but of fact. Dr. King's New Discovery is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional cure.
Hail's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

About the State

Snow is a foot deep in the woods of Stowe.

Sixteen carloads of spruce trees are at the Proctorsville station ready to be shipped.

Olin Merrill of Enosburg Falls has given $500 towards a fund to purchase a nurses' home in St. Albans, in connection with the hospital there.

Rev. H. J. Newton of New Haven, Conn., has accepted a call to the Bradford Congregational church and will begin his new duties about December 1.

Harry Briggs, employed in a Ludlow mill, got his hand caught in the gear of the machinery last week and every finger was taken off. He was carried to the Rutland hospital.

The Baptist church of Georgia has extended a unanimous call to Rev. J. R.
Thomas of Rio Grande, N. J., which he has accepted. He will begin work in his new pastorate December 1.

Rev. C. H. Kenney, formerly a Methodist pastor in Ludlow, was killed by a train, while crossing the railroad track in Old Orchard, Mo., Saturday, Nov. 12.
He was very deaf and did not hear the whistle.

As Mrs. V. M. Babbitt of Rutland was crossing the street in that city Wednesday, she was run against and knocked down by a team, whose driver did not stop to see how badly the woman was hurt. She received a severe scalp wound and one hip was injured.

Mrs. James McDonald of Montgomery Center had a narrow escape from death Sunday when, in rekindling the fire, she added a little kerosene and threw in a lighted match. A terrific explosion followed and a sheet of flame burst out that completely enveloped her, singeing her hair and burning her clothes so that they fell to pieces. The fire was extinguished without her receiving serious burns.

The farm buildings of Mr. and Mrs.
A. J. Mosher in Lyndonville were destroyed by fire Tuesday night, the family having barely time to escape and save the live stock. The house and barn joined and the fire is thought to have started in the upper part of the barn nearest the house, but its origin is a mystery. The buildings were in good condition and the woodshed was full of wood, while about 200 bushels of potatoes, several tons of hay and considerable grain were burned, besides nearly all their clothing and household furniture. Insurance on the property amounted to only $1,300.

Notes from Agricultural School in Lyndonville.

The dairy barn has been boarded on one side and end, and the rafters and ties are being sawed out by the boys.
The shop is being clapboarded. One orchard after the other on Speedwell farm is being judiciously pruned as fast as the weather will permit.

Hothouses are being made, four in all, two long ones holding 30 each and made of two-inch plank; one small one covered by five sash and made of concrete, and a fourth which may properly be styled "poor farmer's greenhouse" for in its construction all the old brick and pieces of brick, lying about the buildings may be used. Set against a banking, an eight-inch wall six feet high holds the dirt up; on each side end and the wall is three feet high, from inch brick walls upon which are put the sills and boarding upon which the sash will rest. An 18-inch alley will separate the center and on each side a hothed filled with twenty-four inches of manure and six inches of soil.
All of these will be covered by double glass sash to be made this winter by the boys.
